Three Jazz Groups To Highlight Concert

Greatest Endeavor Ever Attempted Follows Jr. Prom

ELLINGTON ALUMNUS

Amile Richards will bring with him, his piano and quartet. He also is at present in a Greenwich engagement. Richards can play the slow danceable music of the George Shearing style, as well as keep the hands clapping with his Dixieland and Jazz arrangements.

Rex Stewart, his trumpet and quartet will round out the trio of entertainers in the first show of its type ever to be attempted in this area. Like the other two attractions. This Duke Ellington Alumnus also can play any type of music from "Be-Bop" to ballad and should prove to be an important factor in making this most energetic endeavor ever attempted, at least on the St. Michael's College campus, a great success for the benefit of the Chapel. The Jazz concert will be open to the public with tickets on sale in the S.M. and U.V.M. bookstores, as well as in several locations downtown.

TICKET REPRESENTATIVES

Highlighted by the Prom and Jazz concert, tickets for the weekend will be $7.50 with downtown tickets for the Jazz concert only at $1.00. Ticket representatives are located in every campus hall. They are: OH 2, John Fitzsimmons; OH 3, Len Frosina; OH 4, Don Shea; St. John's, Tommy Hoar; St. James, Carmen Parrella; R 1, Dick Gleason; R 2, Bob Gettens; R 3, Gene Messer; R 4, Fred Hannan; St. William's, Dick O'Brien; St. Patrick's, Ed Freeley; St. Leo's, Paul Kaminski; Off-Campus, Andy Scheer (Bastille.)

As already announced, Ray McKinley, who at present is being featured at the Statler Hotel in New York City, and his orchestra will play the Junior Prom music on next Friday evening.

McKinley has been in the music business for about 20 years and recently has been playing his music almost entirely for Hotel guests and College Prom-goers. Featured on the vocals with McKinley is Miss Dale Nunnally. Dress for this occasion will be Semi-Formal.

PROCEEDS FOR CHAPEL

The Jazz concert on Saturday evening is being staged by the Junior class with all proceeds for the benefit of the Alumni chapel fund. The concert, open to the public, will feature three name Jazz groups.

Mal Douglas, a tenor Sax is at present being featured in Greenwich Village in New York City. He has played with such bands as McKinley, Vincent Lopez, Skitch Henderson, "Red" Allen, Johnny Messner and many others. He has also worked at many of the major hotels in the country, including the Hotel New Yorker, New York City, Pied Piper in Miami, Fla., Brown Jug, Syracuse New York, Plaza Club, New Orleans, La., and others.

PLAYHOUSE GOES FRENCH FOR SHOW

Tomorrow night in Austin Hall, the Club Carillon of St. Michael's College will present its second French-Canadian production of the year, as Eva Fariel, well-known Canadian actress stars in "Ti - Gas."

The Jean Bart production is being jointly sponsored by the College French Club and the Union of St. Jean de Baptiste of Winooski.

BELAND HAS DUAL ROLE

Miss Fariel plays the part of a wealthy matron wishing to adopt the young, poor boy Ti-Gas, played by Regent Beland. Beland not only plays the title role, but will also sing, in French, between the four acts of the melodrama.

The play is the story of a boy who lives in the slum area of the city with his gossiping mother and alcoholic father. One day he is hit by an automobile, after being forced into doing an errand for his mother, even though he be sick. He is brought to the home of a rich couple who have recently lost their only son, and who wish to adopt Ti-Gas. Herein lie the problems of the two families.

JEAN BART DIRECTS

The author of the play, Jean Bart, also directs the company. He along with several of the other performers, were here when the Canadian company staged "La Chasse Au Mari" earlier in the year.

Much of the credit for these performances should go to Rev. J. A. Lanoue, S.S.E., moderator of the campus club, and Vianney Ferland, its president.

After the French Club became unrecognized by the Student Council earlier in the year, they have been continually striving to make campus history here. With these performances they have accomplished this, since now St. Michael's is the only college in the state boasting a French theatre as well as a playhouse.

Sermon Wins Award

The baccalaureate Sermon which Most Rev. Christopher J. Weldon, bishop of Springfield, gave to the St. Michael's College graduating class last June has won an honor medal from Freedom Foundation, Inc., of Valley Forge, Pa.

Titled "Holocausts That Cost Nothing", the sermon was among awards announced this week. Bishop Weldon who was given an honorary doctorate by St. Michael's, is a native New Yorker who served as a navy chaplain and as executive director of New York Archdiocesan Charities before being named bishop of the Western Massachusetts diocese.

SERMON REPRINTED

St. Michael's considered the sermon of sufficient merit that it had it reprinted and submitted for the award among the 10 best baccalaureate addresses.

The awards are given each year for American citizens who do the most outstanding job of bringing about a better understanding of the American Way of Life.

Fr. Tennien Lifts "The Bamboo Curtain"

Fr. Tennien is a St. Michael's graduate of the Class of 1922. He is a Maryknoll missionary and until last year served in China where he was very successful in that capacity, founding many churches and converting multitudes to Christianity.

Very Rev. Daniel P. Lyons, S.S.E., spoke briefly and recalled that the missionary, while at St. Michael's helped found the Mission Crusade, played fullback on the football team and was also active in the college band and served as editor of the campus quarterly.

RED PRISONER

Fr. Tennien's talk centered mainly upon two questions which he has found are asked again and again. "What is a Red prisoner's life like?" and "How did you finally escape?" He told in detail of what occurred from the time of the first communist invasion to his eventual release. After much time in "house arrest," false charges were pressed against him and he was sent to a public prison in which he was the only foreigner. During the following three months he lost some 40 pounds and his health became steadily worse until his captors were finally forced to return him to house arrest.

During his many months of imprisonment he was able, at considerable personal danger, to keep a diary of all he saw and heard. He recorded the Red's systems of land reform, their propaganda methods and the course of indoctrination which he was forced to take. He miraculously was able to get this manuscript out of the country and is now using it as a basis for his book which will be published in September.

"COMMUNISM IS DIABOLICAL"

Fr. George Gilligan, another Maryknoll and Red prisoner, accompanied Fr. Tennien and conducted a question and answer period. He called communism "diabolical."

Mission Crusade moderator, Fr. Maurice Boucher, S.S.E., closed the evening with a brief speech of gratitude to the missionary and presented him with a gift of $100 for his missions.

The Thought Behind It

SOCIALISM ---
You have two cows and give one to a neighbor.

COMMUNISM ---
You have two cows; the government takes both, and gives you the milk.

FASCISM ---
You have two cows; the government takes both and sells you the milk.

NAZIISM ---
You have two cows; the government takes both and shoots you.

NEW IDEALISM ---
You have two cows; the government takes both, shoots one, milks the other, and throws the milk away.

CAPITALISM ---
You have two cows; you sell one and buy a bull.

SERMON HIGHLIGHTS VOCATIONAL SUNDAY

Very Rev. J. T. Purtill, S.S.E., Superior General

Fr. Purtill Speaks On Vocations Sun

For the first time since his appointment as Superior General of the Society of St. Edmund in 1946, Very Rev. Jeremiah T. Purtill, S.S.E., will tomorrow preach the Vocation Sunday sermon in the College Chapel. He will give his talk at the three student Masses.

Fr. Purtill, the first St. Michael's graduate to head the order, will address the Michaelmen on religious vocations in general and show especially what the Society of St. Edmund has to offer young men contemplating the religious life.

S.M.C. GRAD

After graduating from St. Michael's, Fr. Purtill attained his Master's Degree from Notre Dame University and later his Doctorate from the University of Ottawa in Canada. Returning to Winooski Park, he taught here at the college for a while and served as Academic Dean from 1938 to 1942.

Just prior to his election to Superior General in 1946, he also held the position of Master of Novices and Superior of St. Joseph's Novitiate in Poultney, Vt.

GROWING ORDER

Since its founding in France in 1843 by the Venerable John B. Muard, the Society has grown and spread a great deal. Beginning in America at the turn of the century the Fathers founded a high school in Swanton, Vt., and later in 1904, St. Michael's.

The Society has lately spread to the Southern States where there are 15 missions.

Also serving all of Vermont is the Edmundite Mission Band with headquarters in Winooski Park, the Novitiate at Poultney and the Major Seminary at Randolph.

Honorary Degrees For Six In June

One bishop, two Vermont monsigniori and three noted Catholic laymen will receive honorary doctorates at St. Michael's College 48th commencement Monday, June 2.

Very Rev. Daniel P. Lyons, S.S.E., president, said that the trustees had voted to honor the following:

Most Rev. Daniel J. Feeney, coadjutor bishop of Portland, Me., and baccalaureate speaker.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. William J. Cain of Shelburne, Vt., former director of diocesan charities.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. William A. Crowley of Winooski, Vt., diocesan superintendent of schools and a member of our summer session faculty.

Frank I. Curry, of Riverside, Conn., and New York City, member of the Cardinal's Committee of the Laity and assistant vice-president of the Chemical Bank and Trust Company in New York. His son, Dick, is a member of the Class of '53.

James M. O'Neill, chairman of the speech department at Brooklyn College, author of the newly published "Catholicism and American Freedom," "Religion and Education under the Constitution," and numerous books on public speaking and debating. O'Neill gave last year's Delta Epsilon Sigma lecture here.

All will become honorary doctors of laws except for Curry who becomes a doctor of humanities.

SENIOR EXAMS MAY 12-16

The final exams for seniors will take place May 12-16 this year. After this, the seniors will have about two weeks to rest up in preparation for the commencement exercises on June second.

All seniors having at least a B average in any subject may expect to receive an exemption from the final exam in that course. These exemptions will be made known on May 9.

Need we say to the seniors, "check for your exemptions?"

CLASS ELECTIONS

The class elections for the academic year '52-'53 will take place Wednesday, May 7.

The rules for the elections are the same as they have been in the past. That is: all those interested in running for an office should make up a party of seven (7) men, nominees for president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer, and three student council representatives.

This list then has to be endorsed by at least 20 classmates.

Any student may run for an office but a party of seven has to be submitted. All nominations will be made to the present class presidents at a meeting of each class on next Wednesday, April 30.

The Freshmen will meet at 4 p.m., in Austin Hall, with the Sophomores meeting at 4:30 and the Juniors at 5 p.m., also in Austin Hall.

After the nominations have been made, campaigning is encouraged. Everything goes. Each sign, however, has to be approved by the Dean of Men, and all signs and other campaign material have to be torn down immediately after the polls close at 4 p.m. on Wednesday, May 7.

Have You Thought About It

What are you doing here at St. Michael's College? As far as that goes, what are you doing with your life?

Men of college age should be beginning to realize that there is much more to living than merely existing and having a good time. God has placed each and every one of us here upon this earth with a two-fold purpose in His mind--first, that we might save our own souls; and secondly, that, out of Christian charity, we might help our spiritual brother save his.

Which way of life will best enable me to gain my end? Does God want me to lead a life of celibacy? Has He ordained that I gain salvation through the married life? Or has He intended that I serve Him in a special way, in His Holy Priesthood or religious life? THESE are the questions every conscientious college man should be asking himself.....And you???

This last week of April has been set aside here at St. Michael's as Vocation Week. It is never too late to start thinking about this important question, if you haven't already.....Life on earth is short when compared to life in eternity.

Are you one of those who has been called to work out your salvation through the Priesthood of Christ? Are you one of those who has been putting off making a decision? To make a fair decision perhaps you need to learn a little more about the life of the priest--his duties, his work, and his many privileges.

It might be wise for you and me to give this question serious thought. Remember the parable of the talents? (St. Matthew Chapter 25, v. 14-30). Pick up a New Testament and read about it.....Think about it!

Preparation for Future Responsibility

Elections of class officers for the coming academic year are to be held on Wednesday, May 7, in Austin Hall, with the nominations being held at class meetings next Wednesday.

At the nominations, each presidential aspirant will make a short acceptance speech and outline the qualifications of each of his running-mates, before the class.

This is an integral part of campus life, as well as an integral part of our democratic way of life, but what exactly do elections mean? More specifically, what exactly do our own campus elections mean?

They mean simply this. This is a free and democratic government, and since our campus elections are run more or less on the same lines as local and national elections, any student in the College is eligible to run for any office which he may choose, provided that he has the prescribed number of endorsees (20) for his party ticket, and he must run on a party ticket. It also means that elections are held because new leaders are needed, as the old move up a year. However, LEADERS are sometimes overlooked in a race that could turn into nothing more than a popularity contest.

In the past, this year included, St. Michael's has been fortunate in having able class and club officers and next year should be no exception. Nevertheless, it should be kept in mind that the men whom you run for office will lead YOU for the coming year. Therefore, when choosing the party which you form or endorse, keep this always in mind and elect your leaders with the same thought behind your vote as if you were voting nationally.

COUNCIL FAVORS FIVE NEW TEAMS

At its weekly meeting on Monday night, the Student Council officially went on record as favoring the formation of golf, tennis, sailing, skiing and hockey teams, as an integral part of the campus calender.

The debate opened with a recommendation by Dick Gleason that a golf team be added to the list of Outing Club activities, with financial backing up to 50 per cent coming from that club's budget. Members of the team would pay the other half of the dues required at the Country Club.

It was thought, however, that this might be run separately from the Outing Club, since that organization already supports a sailing team on its limited budget.

"LESSER SPORTS" IMPORTANT

The Outing Club budget is also taxed higher, since it sponsors our unofficial College ski team. Up until last year also, the college sponsored an ice-hockey team in inter-collegiate competition. That was discontinued, however, this past season for various reasons.

The motion for the adoption of the golf team to the Outing Club's list of activities met with favorable recognition by the members. The Council nevertheless, set up a committee to investigate the possibilities of recognizing this, along with the other teams which were tacked onto the

MAY PROCESSION OPENS WEEKEND

The month of May - the month of Mary. Once again this year, the students and faculty of St. Michael's College will open their devotions to the Blessed Mother with the May Procession on Friday, May 2.

The annual pilgrimage to the Grotto of Our Blessed Lady, the gift of the Class of 1950, was begun last year. The marble statue stands overlooking the river valley and the Burlington Air Base and is located on the campus grounds across College Parkway rear Prevel Hall.

This year, the devotions will begin in the Chapel, where the Blessed Sacrament will have been exposed all night for First Friday Nocturnal Adoration and the procession will then march to the Grotto where Benediction will be sung by Fr. Lyons.

The procession will form at 5:45 p.m., Friday, in front of College Hall and will be the first official event of the Senior Weekend. - The May Weekend.

CCD TEACHERS BUSY IN STATE

In a recent interview printed in " The Sign, " Archbishop Amleto Giovanni Cigognani, Apolistic Delegate to the United States in commenting on Catholocism in this country, was quoted as saying that " The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine ... is an important adjunct of the Church in the United States."

STARTED, FEB., '51

The S.M.C. Confraternity was started February 1951, through the N.F.C.C.S. The first moderator was Rev. Maurice Boucher, S.S.E., and the first president was Bill Meisenzahl, who has since entered a Trappist Monastery.

Since then it has grown to 40 members with Rev. John Paro, S.S.E., as moderator. Half of the members are made up of girls from Trinity College, and eleven of the group take an active part as teachers of Catholic Doctrine in local parishes.

OFFICERS

The present officers of the club include Harry Brusa - president; Paul Kaminski - vice-president; Ann Pac and Pat Harte - secretaries; George Meisenzahl - treasurer.

In high school the " Catholic Compass " is used for instruction, which this year features Church history. In lower grades the student instructors use " The Catholic Messenger."

At the semi-monthly meetings a guest speaker is usually featured. In the past weeks, Rev. Bernard Spears of St. John Vianney Parish, and Father J. P. Mahoney, diocesan director, have been featured.

PARISH REPRESENTATIVES

The dates and places of all club elections should be handed into the Public Relations office in Old Hall as soon as possible so that ample MICHAELMAN coverage may be given them.

"KNIGHTLIGHTS" ENCORE MON. AT FORT

The directors of " Knightlights," the benefit-variety show staged March 30 in Austin Hall for the benefit of the southern missions of the Society of St. Edmund, have been requested to present the show again. This time for the enjoyment of the Air Force personnel stationed at Fort Ethan Allen.

The show was a huge success when presented here, and should prove to be an even greater one at the Fort on April 28 with those first-night jitters past. The show was originally formed to present the new talent here at the Hilltop. Other shows of this kind have been presented here, such as the " Night of Knights " presented on two nights each of the past two years in Burlington's Memorial Auditorium, but this was the first to be made up almost entirely of NEW talent. In other words, made up mostly of Freshmen and Sophomores.

IN BASE GYM

The second performance of the show will again be open to the public and all those who missed it before are urged to attend this one. However, the show is primarily for the Military personnel. A donation will be accepted, once again for the benefit of the missions.

The Mission Crusade of St. Michael's is sponsoring the show, and will present it at the Fort Monday night April 28 in the base gym.

ENTIRE TROUPE

Leo Allard is director of the show which will have such acts as, a satire on the campus AFROTC, which brought down the house when presented here; vocal stylings by two campus quartets, along with several solos by Phil Gardner, Herb Ashe, and Pat Joyal of Trinity. Also on the program will be a comedy takeoff by Tony Agostinelli and Reid Louden of " Sam Shovel," Ronny Brady's comical antics, and satirical interpretations by Dan McGillicuddy and Jack Sullivan.

The entire cast, which was responsible for the sellout here, will journey up College Parkway for the repeat performance, and it promises to be another hilarious evening for those in attendance.

The cast includes some 120 students in all, from St. Michael's, Trinity, and Fanny Allen Hospital and will once again be introduced by Freshclass prexy Bob Bolster with his in-between-acts " acts."

The producers have also received several other invitations to tour the State, but as yet nothing has been decided.

SAILORS OPEN WITH VICTORY

On Sunday morning, April 20, the St. Michael's College Sailing team officially took to the water for the first time in a triangular meet with Colby College of Maine and the University of Vermont, on Lake Champlain in Shelburne harbor. St. Michael's entered two teams, with Stan Hayes and Len Frosina as skippers and Frank Davis and Joe Crowley as crews.

These two teams compiled a total of 20 points to U.V.M.'s and Colby's 19 and 15 respectively to sail off with the first place position as they did unofficially for the state title last year down at Middlebury.

The first team of Hayes and Davis took two firsts and a second place in three races, while Frosina and Crowley wound up with three seconds, giving them the victory. The University of Vermont, being the host for the event, supplied the teams with four ten-foot sailing dinghys, called " Weasels."

NEISA MEMBER

St. Michael's is now a member of the New England Intercollegiate Sailing Association with its purpose of advancing, encouraging and improving the sport of sailing in all its phases, among the colleges and universities in the North American continent. This Association also tries to promote and develop international, national and intersectional competition.

April 27 - Schools sailing club of Wakefield, Mass.; May 4 - Dual meet with St. Lawrence; May 18 - Quadrangular meet with Williams, Vermont and St. Lawrence; May 25 - State championship race with Vermont and Middlebury.

All races will be held at Malletts Bay on Lake Champlain.

The club now has ten members. Anyone else interested in joining, may contact Stan Hayes at Ryan 322.

Hilltopics:

By FRAN HOBEN

Athletic Director " Doc " Jacobs released the 1952 football schedule this weekend and it is one sure to please all died-in-the-wool followers of the Knights. Of seven contests, our own Athletic Field will be the scene of all but one, the annual bone-crusher with Springfield. Festivities start on Sept. 28 when St. Francis of Loretto, Pa., renews acquaintances. The Frankies are reputedly a club used to winning its share of gridiron games too, and this could very well be the best attraction of the year.

They are one of three newcomers, the others being the Purple Knights (that's right) of Bridgeport University, a comparatively young school rapidly making its name in New England athletic circles, and Champlain.

Here is the complete list:

Sept. 28, St. Francis (Pa.) (H); Oct. 5, Arnold (H); Oct. 11, Vermont; Oct. 18, A.I.C. (H); Oct. 25, Springfield (A); Nov. 1, Bridgeport (H); Nov. 8, Champlain (H).

It will be Arnold's third straight showing on the S.M.C. campus, Vermont's second visit, and A.I.C.'s first. They will be attempting to break the Knight's string of nine in a row and also won 11 consecutive home successes. The last loss for the locals was administered by the '50 edition of Springfield College. Incidentally the Aces of A.I.C. look like a sure-fire powerhouse 'way back here in April.

SAILORS VICTORY

Extra special congratulations are in order for the Sailing Club for winning the recent triangular meet from Colby and U.V.M. Although usually overlooked by most of the sports minded hereabouts the boys have been doing a slightly terrific job during the past two seasons, and now with experience and more organization behind them, we may yet be able to claim another state champ amongst us.

Baseball Opener Thursday

Intras

By ED FREELEY

The Intramural Softball League started off with a bang this week. There were two tight pitching duels between Ryan I and Ryan II, and St. Leo's and St. William's and an explosion by St. Patrick's over St. James.

In the Ryan I vs. Ryan II game, it was a scoreless pitchers duel for the first five innings. But in the 6th inning both teams scored and it wasn't until the last of the seventh that Ryan I pushed across the winning run enabling Joe Handy to chalk up his first win of the year.

In the St. Leo's vs. St. William's game it was another mound battle as Jim Farley and Bob Brouillette battled it out. But the last of the seventh proved to be the downfall of the Lions as St. Williams knocked over the winning run to surprise the veteran St. Leo's array.

The third game was altogether different as St. Pat's garnered 11 runs in a big first inning. They added a couple in both the 2nd and 6th, and a lone tally in the 5th to down St. James 18 to 2 and give Joe Powers his initial win. Hank Witte led St. Pats with 2 long home runs.

By BILL WIGMORE

What Coach George " Doc " Jacobs had to say about the Varsity nine, now nearing the end of the warm-up season, just about sums up the whole of the baseball picture this Spring. " Never in my four years of coaching the game here at St. Michael's," said Doc, " have I seen a more high spirited, hustling bunch of youngsters, who are so anxious to really get out and play ball." Now that the final cuts have been made, it seems as if quite a few Frosh and Sophs have come through to gain berths on the squad.

The infield, hardest hit by last June's graduation, should look something like this. First and second base seem likely to be held down by Freshmen Bob Bolster and Chuck Frascatore. At short veteran Ken Casperson is being pushed by another Freshman, easy fielding Norm Faucher. A similar situation develops at third where Art Coggio vies with Barry Hamilton, a newcomer to the varsity with a good Frosh record behind him.

VETERAN OUTFIELDERS

" Sugar " Whelan, a familiar face from last season's team, will be around again to grab flies out in the outfield. He will be joined by Sophomore John Donovan a regular on the past year's Frosh squad. Should Jack Cronin, another vet, not live up to form, Coach Jacobs has a fine replacement in Freshman Dick Gilltrop. Behind the plate, John Barbati with his potent stick is a threat to nose out John Temperilli, who has understudied for the Mikemen in the previous two campaigns.

According to Doc Jacobs, the pitching is good and even overshadowing the hitting, which has not quite reached the point where he wants it. Mike Vartulli, Herb Gardner, Paul Caouette and John Sully all have been steadily pitching well and seem assured of positions with the team. Till recently they have been splitting the hurling in intra-squad games.

St. Michael's will initiate the '52 season with two home games; May 1 against Williams, and May 3 against Lowell Tech. The co-defense of the State Crown begins with Vermont on the 5th.

These four S.M. students left this morning on the annual Spring trip of the Debating Club. Before returning to the campus Sunday night they will debate with such foes as, St. Anselm's, Harvard, M.I.T., Holy Cross, Merrimac, Worcester Polytech, A.I.C., Amherst and Holyoke.

Rest In Peace

During the Easter holidays, St. Michael's lost one of its most popular pupils, Jose Jaramillo. Jose had to return to his native Columbia because of the death of his father, Bernardo Jaramillo. Your prayers are requested for the repose of his soul.

bill, and in some way supporting them.

It was realized that although these teams do come under the heading of "lesser sports," they are, nevertheless important.

SNACK BAR

It was also brought up in the discussion, that if St. Michael's had tennis courts when the school was much smaller it ought to be able to push to completion soon, the proposed new courts to be located in the rear of Ryan Hall.

Also at the Monday meeting, President Tom Shields appointed a committee to investigate the new price increases in the Snack Bar. This brought about a great cheer for "Buddy can you spare a dime for a cup of coffee?"

NEW AMENDMENT

A new amendment to the Council's constitution was also submitted Monday by Bill Hindle at the request of the Shield, whereby every member of the Council would have a chance of being elected president instead of merely the elected senior class representatives, exclusive of the senior class president, as it now stands. This would mean that every senior club president would also be eligible for the Council presidency along with the elected representatives, exclusive of the senior president and would provide a larger group from which to choose. This motion also was received favorably, but was tabled for two weeks.
